

Project No.: 2011/0018 (Revised)

Part B: Project Summary (Project Number: 2011/0018)*Project Title: Little Professionals: Little Pilot - Welcome to the World of Flight - (Promoting Whole Child Development in Pre-primary Education)*Name of Organization: Hong Kong Soka Kindergarten (HKSK)*Goals:

- Develop communication skills through use of symbols, signs and pilots' codes'
- Use mathematical and scientific concepts in an applied manner, including identifying, classifying, counting and problem-solving
- Conduct simple scientific experiments related to air and flight
- Develop communication skills through use of symbols, signs and pilot 'codes'
- Understand the social roles played by pilots and the consequence on students own lives
- Increased question-forming and exploration skills
- Greater understanding of human capabilities
- Develop self-learning skills for studies

Objectives:

- Deliver meaningful age-appropriate lessons based on flight, aviation and the role of the pilot with a hands-on emphasis
- Use mathematical and scientific concepts in an applied manner, including identifying, classifying, counting and problem-solving
- Provide content-rich and accessible lesson plan guides for teaching staff
- Promote the use of whole-learning with diversified activities
- And engage students' participation through various teaching materials and workshops

(1) Targets: Kindergarten students with grades K1, K2 and K3, comprising eight classes of K1, six classes of K2 and six classes of K3 all together in the morning and afternoon sessions(2) Implementation Plan:

Duration: 12 months (covering January 2012 to December 2012)

Stage 1: Curriculum development and customization

Stage 2: Training sessions for teachers and introduction seminars for parents

Stage 3: Lessons and workshop for students, comprising to meet the pilot and visit the airport

Stage 4: Feedback, summary and evaluation

(3) Products:

Deliverables: Lively inquiry-based activities, complemented by website learning, designed to introduce science and technology concepts in a simple and approachable way, certified by a career professional pilot.

Budget:

1.	Staff Cost	HK$117,600
2.	Service	HK$116,200
3.	General Expenses	HK$35,200
Total Budget		HK$269,000

(4) Evaluation :

- i) Seminars, workshops, discussion and online activities will be monitored and reviewed by teachers and consultants. They will provide evaluation reports at the end of the project
- ii) Parents and teachers will complete the pre-project and post-project survey about the expectation and the performance of the project